

Yunchang Jeffrey Bor, Ph.D.

January 3, 2009

Dr. Yunchang Jeffrey Bor is the Head of the Department of Economics, Chinese Culture University in Taipei, Taiwan. He is also a Professor in the Department of Economics and the Department of Natural Resources, Chinese Culture University in Taipei, Taiwan, the President of the Triple-E Strategy Development Association (TSDA) in Taiwan. He used to be an Associate Professor in the Department of Economics and the Department of Natural Resources, Chinese Culture University in Taipei, Taiwan, the Economic Policy Adviser, a Research Fellow, an Associate Research Fellow in the Chung-Hua Institution for Economic Research, a Visiting Professor in the Department of Molecular Biosciences and Biosystems Engineering, University of Hawaii, a Visiting Fellow in the East-West Center, as well as the Vice-president of the International Energy Economics Association (IAEE). Dr. Bor gained his Ph.D. from the Department of Agricultural Economics, Purdue University, USA in 1993. He was the organizers of the 28th IAEE International Conference in 2005, the First IAEE Asian Conference in 2007. He is also the organizers of the 2009 CEO Conference of the Association of the Electricity Supply Industry of East Asian and the Western Pacific (AESIEAP), as well as the 18th Conference of the Electric Power Supply Industry (CEPSI), AESIEAP in 2010.

With major research areas of energy economics, environmental economics, resource economics, general equilibrium analysis and quantitative analysis, Dr. Bor has produced many works (most of which are in Chinese), including books, research reports, journal articles and conference papers. He has received Grade-A Research Awards from the National Science Council (NSC) in Taiwan, a Visiting Fellowship in the East-West Center, and a Fulbright Senior Researcher Award from the US Department of State.